

Training Programme on Gender Mainstreaming through Gender Responsive Budgeting

20-22 December 2007
New Delhi

Globally and especially in developing countries, it has been observed that there are gender based inequalities in resource allocation and accessibility to various services. In realization of this phenomenon many governments and organizations have expressed commitment to objectives aimed at equality. Gender mainstreaming, greater transparency & accountability in planning processes and Gender Responsive Budgeting have emerged as key concepts in achieving greater gender equality.

Gender Responsive Budgeting can play a significant role at every stage of development processes viz. project formulation, design, monitoring and evaluation so as to assess and initiate affirmative action towards ensuring mainstreaming of gender issues and consequent allocation of resources for greater gender empowerment.

Parivartan announces a training programme on 'Gender Mainstreaming through Gender Responsive Budgeting' at Delhi. The training programme shall introduce the concept of gender responsive budgeting highlighting the strategic framework adopted for undertaking the same as a practice. The programme aims at illustrating the background, approaches and methodologies under the realm of gender responsive budgeting that are being followed and their effectiveness in the context of empowerment and mainstreaming of gender concerns in development.

Training Outcomes

The training is specifically aimed at developing appreciation of the need and rationale for integrating gender concerns in project plans and budgets. The training outcomes would be:

- ▶ Enhanced understanding for formulation and implementation of gender-sensitive projects and budgets.
- ▶ Skills for developing and using gender criteria and indicators for evaluating and monitoring the budgets at different levels.

Who should attend

This programme, aims at building organizational capacities in gender mainstreaming through gender responsive budgeting and is targeted for operational and middle level functionaries, practitioners and consultants involved in designing, implementation, mentoring, monitoring and evaluation of development projects.

Programme Fee

Fee for the programme is INR 6,000 per participant. Payments can be made through demand draft in favour of "Parivartan Samaj Sewa Samiti", New Delhi

Parivartan

Parivartan is a not-for-profit society striving towards fostering equitable and just humanitarian development through participatory action research, training and networking. With the mission of "reaching unreached", Parivartan initiatives focus on multi-stakeholder processes with themes cutting across sectors. Sambodhi Research & Communications, a leading Development Management Consultancy & Training Organization is the knowledge partner for Parivartan's initiatives.

For further information

Parivartan

H-35 A, LGF, Kalkaji, New Delhi-110019
contact@parivartan.org.in www.parivartan.org.in, 011-65492502, 40560734